

Black Iris Records has just released Dulcie Taylor's sixth all-original CD, Better Part of Me. It is not a stretch to predict that her new release (and its videos) will receive the same critical praise and extensive airplay that her previous recordings have garnered. Currently, her videos at her YouTube have over 3.1 million views and her 2014 CD, ONLY WORN ONE TIME reached No.1 on the Americana Song Chart at Roots Music Report.

The Midwest Record in Chicago says - "Sure fire killer stuff from a major talent." Dulcie has twice won the New Times Music Award for Best Songwriter (New Times is published in San Luis Obispo, covering the Central coast of California). Her FREE OF THIS SORROW CD (2012) reached No. 1 at Amazon for Top-Rated Americana.

The first CD, DIAMOND & GLASS, won a Wammie (Washington DC Area Music Award) and also charted at Album Network's non-commercial AAA. "It shines exactly like its title, Diamond & Glass." Robert Oermann, Music Row.

MIRRORS AND WINDOWS, her second CD, was named one of the Best CDs of the Year by Soundstage, which puts her in the company of such artists as Brian Wilson, Los Lobos, and Wilco. Taylor has performed at a wide range of venues, including Mainstage Kerrville Folk Festival, The Bluebird (TN), and The Kennedy Center (DC).
